

The Radiate Christ Conference seeks to offer a day of prayer, community, and practical training for evangelists and their teams who are serving the parish in areas of Youth, Adult, and Family Evangelization & Catechesis.

Accompaniment & Evangelization

Saturday, August 14, 2021 | 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Who should participate?

- Ideally, the Parish Evangelist -- Youth Minister, DRE/CRE, Director of Adult Faith Formation -- would attend with their team of catechists or core team
- Anyone volunteering as a catechist or core team member for youth or adults
- Anyone serving on staff doing youth or adult evangelization

What should I expect from the day?

- Two keynotes and a breakout from Matt Halbach on our theme of Accompaniment & Evangelization
- Workshops on Elementary Evangelization (K-5), Youth Evangelization (Grades 6-12), and Adult Evangelization, as well as some electives
- Opportunities for prayer, Confession, Adoration, and praise & worship
- Designated time for your team to meet and discuss how you might implement any new strategies learned at the conference

"Catechesis forms believers for mission, accompanying them in the maturation of attitudes of faith and making them aware that they are missionary disciples, called to participate actively in the proclamation of the Gospel" (Directory for Catechesis, 50)

Keynote Speaker:
Deacon Matt Halbach, Ph.D.

Deacon Matthew Halbach, Ph.D. was ordained in 2018 for the Diocese of Des Moines, IA. He is the Executive Director of Catechesis for William H. Sadlier, Inc. and a national author and speaker on the topics of mercy, accompaniment, evangelization, and catechesis. Deacon Halbach is also a member of the USCCB National Advisory Council (2019-2023). He earned his Ph.D. in Catechetics from The Catholic University of America in 2014, and is a reviewer for the university's International Journal of Evangelization and Catechesis. Deacon Halbach is a husband and father of six children.
